

Community Relations

Educational Research Conducted in the District

The Board of Education supports appropriate educational research which directly benefits students and the school district.

The Board of Education does not condone experimentation, use of students' instructional time or of staff's regular work time for the purpose of conducting educational research.

The Board of Education does encourage and promote research and data collection which directly benefits the improvement of student achievement, teaching, and learning.

(cf: BP6162.8)

Policy
adopted: 08/03/93
revised: 02/03/98