

LODI UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT

Rule 5112.1

Students

Exemptions from Attendance

Exemptions from Regular Education Program

A student may be exempted from full-time attendance in the district's regular education program if he/she:

1. Is being instructed in private full-time school and the district attendance supervisor or designee verifies that the private school has filed an affidavit pursuant to Education Code 33190.
2. Is being instructed by a private tutor who holds a valid state credential for the grade taught, provided that the instruction consists of study and recitation for at least three hours a day for 175 days of each calendar year.
3. Holds a work permit to work temporarily in the entertainment or allied industry.
4. Holds a work permit and attends part-time classes.
5. Is between the ages of 12 and 18 and enters a school attendance area from another state within 10 days of the end of the school term, with the exemption applicable for the remainder of the term.
6. Is at least 15 years old and is taking a leave of absence for up to one semester for the purpose of supervised travel, study, training or work not available to the student under another educational option.
7. Attends a community college as a special full-time student on the grounds that he/she would benefit from advanced scholastic or vocational work.

Exemptions from Continuation Education

All students age 16 or 17 who are not attending full-time day school are required to attend continuation school, unless they are exempt as provided below.

A student who would otherwise be subject to compulsory education pursuant to Education Code 48400 or 48402 may be exempted if he/she:

1. Has graduated from a public or private high school maintaining a four-year course above the eighth grade or has had an equal amount of education in a private school or from a private tutor. In the case of a private school, the exemption shall be granted only if the Superintendent or designee has verified that the private school has filed an affidavit pursuant to education Code 33190.
2. Has successfully demonstrated proficiency equal to or greater than standards established by the California Department of Education and has verified approval submitted by his/her parent/guardian.
3. Is attending a public or private full-time day school, or satisfactory part-time classes maintained by other agencies.
4. Is attending adult school for not less than four hours per week.
5. Is attending a regional occupation program or center pursuant to Education Code 48432.
6. Is disqualified because of his/her physical or mental condition or because of personal services that must be rendered to his/her dependents.
7. Is between the ages of 12 and 18 and enters a school attendance area from another state within 10 days of the end of the school term, with the exemption applicable for the remainder of the term pursuant to Education Code 48231.

In addition, a student who is between the ages of 16 and 18 may be exempted from continuation education if he/she is taking a leave of absence for up to two semesters for the purpose of supervised travel, study, training, or work not available to the student under another educational option.
